CAREFUL PARCEL WRAPPING URGED

Because a large number of damaged parcel-post packages originating on the mainland continue to be received in foreign countries, including China, when possibly a good many of them were originally consigned to points in Hawaii, the Honolulu postoffice requests residents of the territory to use more care in wrapping up packages securely when the destination is to points on the mainland, Philippines or Orient.

The daily postal bulletin sent out by Second Assistant Postmaster Otto Praeger from Washington, dated February 17, says that it has come to the attention of the department that a large number of parcel-post packages continue to go astray.

"It is reported," says the bulletin, "that that condition is largely due to the flimsy quality and insufficient quantity of material used for packing the parcels due no doubt to a desire to save weight and thereby postage.
In many cases the cardboard of thin wooden boxes arrive broken with the contents damaged or scattered in the sacks so that frequently it is impossible to ascertain to which of the parcels said contents belong."

"The packing of parcels undergoing a long sea transit must of necessity be stronger than that of parcels for domestic delivery and postmasters are again directed therefore to adopt such further measures at their offices as will prevent the acceptance for mailing of any parcel addressed for delivery in a foreign country which is not packed in such a manner as to assure its safe transmission to destination."

In commenting on this warning Superintendent of Mails Frank T. Sullivan today said: "In the case of Hawaii the same precautions should be taken with reference to parcels sent to or from the territory."

BOOSTER THINKS AUTO FREIGHT TOO HIGH ON INTER-ISLAND STEAMERS

"It is bad enough to drive over the poor roads of Oahu," said Jimmy Jump, noted booster and sportsman, upon his return from a fishing trip yesterday. "But it is worse to have the motorist chained to these poor roads on this island." The Inter-Island Company should make a rate for tourists to bring their automobiles to Maui, Kauai and Hawaii.

"You want tourists to bring their machines to Honolulu. They bring them. Then they try to use them, and after bumping along some of the chuck holes they finally give up in despair, and decide to tour the other islands.
Here they are blocked. The transportation company decides to tax a big rate for carrying the car, and as a result the tourist does not go. As a rule he leaves Honolulu weeks before he decided to go.

"If the tourists could secure reasonable rates on the steamers plying between island ports for their cars, then you would have more tourists. In Los Angeles they figure to get your money, but they do it in a more diplomatic way. If tourists could secure better rates you would have more tourists and more money." And then he started to tell how he caught one of the demons of the deep. "Steve" Brodie, one of the best known fishermen of California, arrived in Honolulu yesterday, joining the "Come Back" Club.
Brodie and Jump talked game fishing and poor roads for an hour yesterday, and Brodie, who did not join in the transportation discussion, said:
"You can bet that Jump is always right."

A DEPENDABLE MEDICINE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable root and herb medicine. It has made a place for itself among the great mass of people, because thousands of sick women have tried it and proved that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it. Nothing unfavorable can honestly be said about it. It does not contain injurious drugs. It is a root and herb remedy founded upon a physician's prescription, and is manufactured for a specific purpose. That is accomplished this purpose is proved by thousands

THIRD PARTY OF TOURISTS COMES ON WILHELMINA

One of Hawaii's foremost promoters, Walter Pontin, agent of the Raymond & Whitcomb Tours, is in Honolulu with headquarters at the Moana Hotel.
He came here on the Great Northern three weeks ago with a large party and has directed about 75 people since he has been here.

Pontin has been nine times around the world and knows the car's attractions pretty well, but he believes there are great possibilities for summer tours to Hawaii and his efforts are being expended in that direction at the present.

One of the Raymond & Whitcomb tours has been here and gone, another is here now and a third came in today on the Wilhelmmina. All were large parties when booked for the touring company is featuring the islands now, but the war scare has cut the numbers down appreciably.

While here, Pontin tries to keep his guests busy every minute for many of them are business men who want to see the most in the least possible time and it is up to him to provide something new all the time. He says that he will probably feature the Big Island more for attractions than has been the custom. He declares too little time is spent there by visitors.

An interesting question which is particularly in the limelight just now is asked by Pontin. He wants to know "When is a hula."

The touring agent takes his parti-s to a hula. They demand it as a part of the trip. They have been satisfied with what he has offered here but Pontin wants to know if it is the straight stuff.

He says he has heard so much discrediting talk about the present day hula that he would like to see a real hula if the one he stages is not. Until something else is offered, however, he proposed to keep on with the old kind.

In Java Pontin says the girls will dance all day and all night, depicting the history of the world in fancy steps, so long as the money keeps flowing in, but there is nothing suggestive or repulsive about their movements.

A party on the way to the Orient recently stopped in Honolulu for a day.

Northern yesterday from California.

They are old, experienced officers and tant posts on the mainland.

under whose direction these officers are laboring, are to preside at a farewell meeting for Adj. and Mrs. Tim-
